

Digilog Electronics Ltd (“Digilog”) provides information on its business via its website <http://www.digilog.co.nz> (“digilog.co.nz”). This information includes but is not restricted to, documentation on its products and supplies, privacy statements, non-disclosure agreements, terms of trade, contact information, company profile & history, hyperlinks to other websites, indirectly the html source code for digilog.co.nz, product software and conceptual ideas around the concept of internet connectivity. This information is modified and updated when deemed necessary by Digilog.

Collectively this information is termed “Materials” and Digilog provides these Materials free to its customers for limited use only and subject to the Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) listed in this document.

BY OPENING THE DIGILOG.CO.NZ WEBSITE AND DOWNLOADING, COPYING, PRINTING OR ANY OTHER MEANS RECORDING THE “MATERIAL”, THEN YOU AFFIRMATIVELY AGREE TO THE “TERMS” IN THEIR ENTIRETY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS YOU MUST EXIT DIGILOG.CO.NZ IMMEDIATELY.

1. Limited License to digilog.co.nz Material

Digilog owns the copyright to the Material from digilog.co.nz and any website operated by Digilog, including Social Media websites and any embedded web server products designed by Digilog for which Digilog has the copyright to the website and Material contained therein. Unauthorised use of the Material may violate Digilog’s Intellectual Property (“IP”) rights or the Copyright Law of New Zealand.

If you agree to these Terms then Digilog permits you to download, copy or print a “single” copy of all or a portion of the Material. This download is for the purpose of informing for non-commercial, lawful means. You may only disseminate free copies of the Material you have downloaded to customers or potential customers of Digilog. You may not distribute the Material to any third parties without Digilog's express written permission. Unauthorized commercial use of these Materials includes without limitation, public display, performance, sale or rental.

Modification and editing of Digilog's Material contained herein is strictly prohibited. Further you must not modify any copyright marking, trademark, registered trademark, logo, registered design mark or any other proprietary IP owned by Digilog.

This Limited License, as well as the Materials, are non-transferable and does not give you any title or IP rights to the Materials. You may not decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer, or otherwise convert Digilog's software Materials except including all websites owned by Digilog and only to the extent permitted by law.

2. Termination of this Limited License

Digilog or you may terminate this Limited License at any time. Digilog may terminate this agreement immediately without notice, for any reason. Upon such a termination by Digilog you must destroy all of the Materials.

You may terminate this agreement at any time with the proviso you must destroy all of the Materials.

3. Hyperlinks to other Materials

Digilog may provide on digilog.co.nz links to other websites. However Digilog exercises no control over these linked to websites and therefore Digilog is not responsible for either the content of the linked to website or any further link contained in the linked to website. At any time Digilog reserves the right to delete, omit, modify or otherwise any links to other websites on Digilog.co.nz.

Any on-link to another website is not an endorsement of that linked to web site and it's Material by Digilog. Digilog reserves the right to state such non-endorsement of any linked to website on Digilog.co.nz.

If you access any third party linked to website from Digilog.co.nz it is solely at your own risk. Further, you agree to defend, indemnify and hold Digilog harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages and expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising out of your use of the Digilog.co.nz website and any linked to websites sites from Digilog.co.nz.

4. Disclaimer, Generally

You agree that Digilog is not liable for any damages or injury whatsoever (including, without limitation, damages for lost profits, business interruption, or loss of information) caused by, without limitation, any use of the Materials or failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus, or line failure in connection with the use of Digilog.co.nz, even if Digilog has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

THE MATERIALS PROVIDED ARE ON AN "AS IS" BASIS ONLY, WITHOUT WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR NON-INFRINGEMENT OF IP RIGHTS.

The above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you since some jurisdictions prohibit the limitation or exclusion of liability for incidental or consequential damages. In any event, you agree that Digilog's total liability to you for all losses, damages, and causes of action (in contract, tort (including without limitation, negligence) or otherwise) will not exceed the amount you paid to access this website.

Digilog does not warrant the accuracy, completeness, or reliability of the Materials contained in this website. Digilog reserves the right to amend these Materials, or the products described therein, at any time without notice. While Digilog does, from time to time, revise these Terms (and you should revisit this page from time to time to review the then current Terms because they will be binding on you), it does not make any representations or commitments to update the Materials. Certain provisions of these Terms may be superceded by specifically designated legal notices or terms located throughout this website.

5. Disclaimer, Product performance

Digilog's products are not intended, authorized, or warranted for use as components in applications intended to support or sustain life.

Unless specifically provided otherwise, Digilog's products are not suitable for, and shall not be used in, automotive applications.

Digilog's products where required have been tested to comply with certain safety and emissions standards. Any performance specifications provided herein for Digilog's products have been measured using certain computer systems and test procedures and as such reflect the average performance of Digilog's products under these conditions. Use of other systems with Digilog's products other than has been stipulated by Digilog may affect the product performance and customers should consult with reliable sources of information prior to purchase of Digilog's products.

6. Jurisdiction and Governing Law

Unless specifically stated otherwise, all Materials in Digilog.co.nz are made available for the sole purpose of providing information about Digilog and its products and services.

Digilog Electronics Ltd operates and controls this site from Auckland, New Zealand, and makes no representation that these Materials are appropriate or available for use in other geographical locations.

If you use Digilog.co.nz from other locations you are solely responsible for compliance with applicable local laws. You acknowledge and agree that the Materials may be subject to New Zealand export control laws and regulations and may be subject to export or import regulations in other countries.

You agree that you will comply with applicable laws or regulations of New Zealand or the country where the Materials were legally obtained. You are solely responsible for obtaining any licenses or authorizations required to export, re-export, transfer or import the Materials.

In addition to the above, in the absence of authorization by New Zealand and local law and regulations, as required, the Materials may not be used or exported or re-exported to;

- (i) any New Zealand sanctioned or embargoed country, or to nationals or residents of such countries;
- (ii) or any person, entity, organization or other party identified on any of the New Zealand Government lists of restricted end-users, as published and revised from time to time;
- (iii) or any party engaged in nuclear, chemical/biological weapons or missile proliferation activities.

Digilog is not and cannot be liable for any third party use of its Materials from Digilog.co.nz, in violation of any applicable law.

7. Communications

Digilog provides a Contact Page on Digilog.co.nz for the sole purpose of submitting remarks, requests, ideas (Communications”) or any other information to Digilog by email.

If you transmit any email to Digilog from the Contact page you agree the Communication is deemed public and non–proprietary. Further you agree Digilog has no obligation with respect to the Communications and has the right to copy, disseminate, incorporate and otherwise use the Communications for any purpose, commercial or non–commercial.

Be advised that any Communications transmitted by you that are threatening, libellous, defamatory, obscene, or otherwise unlawful, are strictly prohibited and may be actionable by Digilog.

8. Social Media Activities

Digilog has established various social media (“Media”) web sites for promoting its products and services. Digilog may at its sole discretion monitor and review any of its Media websites where others can post Communications (as defined in clause 7. above).

Notwithstanding Digilog shall have no responsibility for liability related to the content of any such Communications on these Media websites, whether or not arising under any applicable law.

9. Digilog’s IP

Digilog is the owner of IP, including software libraries, patents, registered designs, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as conferring by implication, estoppel, or other legal theory, a license or right to any of Digilog’s IP, except those expressly provided herein. Use of any of such IP is therefore strictly unauthorized without the prior written consent by Digilog .
